

THE ASIA VILLA GUIDE – VILLA AZAYA

First Edition – 2011

AZAYA
SEMINYAK, BALI, INDONESIA

33

SLEEPS
10-12

BEDROOMS
3 - King/Queen
2 - Twin

STAFF
1 - Manager
2 - Chef/Cook
2 - Service Staff
3 - Maid/Cleaner
4 - Security
1 - Other

INDONESIA • Bali

PREMIUM COLLECTION

PRICE FROM
$1,299.00 pp

AMENITIES
AC, Wi-Fi, Pool, Spa, Gym, BBQ, Car, Airport Transfer, Concierge, Butler, Linen, Towels, Beach Towels, Slippers, Umbrella, Sunscreen, First Aid Kit, Baby Cot, High Chair, Stroller, Car Seat, Baby Monitor, Baby Stroller, Baby Carriage, Baby Bed, Baby Bath, Baby Diapers, Baby Wipes, Baby Food, Baby Bottles, Baby Formula, Baby Toys, Baby Stroller, Baby Carriage, Baby Bed, Baby Bath, Baby Diapers, Baby Wipes, Baby Food, Baby Bottles, Baby Formula, Baby Toys

RATING
8.2

Modern nuclear family living being what it is we don't often get the chance just to hang out and enjoy each other's company, or have the space to invite grandma and grandpa along too. This is where a villa holiday can really come into its own. A villa is a home away from home; somewhere everyone can relax and be comfortable and no one needs worry about what to cook for dinner or how to keep the troops entertained. But let's be realistic, when three generations are thrown together for long periods, everyone's going to want their own space too.

And space is what Villa Azaya delivers. Not only is it big enough to accommodate even the largest of families, but it has a separate, self-contained, two-bedroom pavilion at the bottom of the garden, ideal for teenagers, grandparents, or even mums and dads.

It's also a bit on the sexy side design-wise, with sleek interiors, a fantastically modern dining and kitchen area, a bar by the 20-metre pool, and a private gym. The stairs are floodlit and the master bedrooms are super-conducive to seduction with shag pile rugs and vast, glorious bathrooms. And if that's not enough to make you happy, then simply head to the beach, only 50 metres away through a secret door in the garden wall which opens onto a pathway to the sand.

The neighbours are top quality too; no riff-raff around here. You can walk to any one of a number of great restaurants and now, with the new multi-million dollar W resort right next door; you have the option to wine, dine, schmooze and rub shoulders with the whoo-hoo of Who's Who right on the beach as the sun and sundowners go down.

www.theasiavillaguide.com/Azaya/

PREMIUM COLLECTION

Azaya,
Seminyak, Bali, Indonesia

Modern nuclear family living being what it is we don't often get the chance just to hang out and enjoy each other's company, or have the space to invite grandma and grandpa along too. This is where a villa holiday can really come into its own. A villa is a home away from home; somewhere everyone can relax and be comfortable and no one needs worry about what to cook for dinner or how to keep the troops entertained. But let's be realistic, when three generations are thrown together for long periods, everyone's going to want their own space too.

And space is what Villa Azaya delivers. Not only is it big enough to accommodate even the largest of families, but it has a separate, self contained, two-bedroom pavilion at the bottom of the garden, ideal for teenagers, grandparents, or even mums and dads.

It's also a bit on the sexy side design-wise, with sleek interiors, a fantastically modern dining and kitchen area, a bar by the 20-metre pool, and a private gym. The stairs are floodlit and the master bedrooms are super-conducive to seduction with shag pile rugs and vast, glorious bathrooms. And if that's not enough to make you happy, then simply head to the beach, only 50 metres away through a secret door in the garden wall which opens onto a pathway to the sand.

The neighbours are top quality too; no riff-raff around here. You can walk to any one of a number of great restaurants and now, with the new multi-million dollar W resort right next door, you have the option to wine, dine, schmooze and rub shoulders with the whoo-hoo of Who's Who right on the beach as the sun and sundowners go down.

www.theasiavillaguide.com/Azaya/

www.villaazaya.com